Prior General's Circular

GENERAL PLENARY ASSEMBLY

Dear Rev. Fathers and Brothers,

In the tenor of the Norms and Procedures of General Plenary Assembly, Art 4, I, in consultation with the General Council (GCA:31/281/2021 dated 26 September, 2021) hereby convoke the first General Plenary Assembly of the present General team. The Assembly will be held from April 25, Monday 10.00 am to April, 29, Friday 04.00 pm, 2022 at Dharmaram College, Bengaluru. The list of the participants of the assembly also is published herewith.

The plenary assembly is an occasion to collectively evaluate the life and apostolate of our Congregation in the light of the thrusts and decisions of the General Synaxis and to make proposals to the General Council for effectively and fruitfully implementing the vision, resolutions and action plans of GS 38. Hence all the participants are requested to come prepared with their objective observations and creative suggestions and proposals. The procedure and dynamics of the assembly will be according to the Norms and Procedures of the General Plenary Assembly which is revised and promulgated on 03rd October 2021. The programme schedule and timetable will be sent to the participants in due course.

As it was decided in the Major Superiors Meeting of 17 September, 2021, the Plenary Assembly of the Provinces will be held before the General Plenary Assembly and the report of it shall reach the office of the Prior General on or before 31 March 2022 so that the relevant proposals from the Provincial Plenary Assembly can be incorporated for the deliberations of General Plenary Assembly 2022.

All our members are earnestly requested to pray for the success of the General and Provincial Plenary Assembly so that our collective deliberations may contribute to the revitalization of our charism through our life and Apostolate.

Faternally in our Lord,

Fr Thomas Chathamparampil CMI
Prior General

Fr Martin Mallathu CMI
Secretary, General Council
